WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1909.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1906

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Twelve women were seriously injured in a rush for bargains at a Louisville 5 and 10c store Saturday.

Mr. James Newell, the black face monologist, left yesterday in response to a telegram to join the Humpty Dumpty troupe at Cincinnati.

Millard Merz, Assignee of Margaret S. Smith, doing business as W. R. Smith, Agent, reports as follows: Assets, $371.13; less exemptions, $200; net inventory and appraisal, $171.13; liabilities, $1,897.63.

We have it from good authority that Merz Bros. sold more cloaks and suits Saturday than any day in the history of their house. That shows, with an up-to-date line of goods properly advertised, what can be done.

With every dollar's worth of goods bought at P. J. Murphy's, you get a ticket on the elegant "Diamond Ring." Now is your opportunity to buy goods at a low price and get a ticket, which costs you nothing.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chisholm, who have been sojourning at Cynthiana for several months, returned home Friday. Mr. Chisholm was in the kitchen cabinet business, but did not succeed quite as well as the "wise men" who did up this city and county to the Queen's taste.

The funeral of the late William Spromberg took place Saturday from the home in Commerce street under auspices of the Oddfellows, and was largely attended by friends and neighbors. Dr. Barbour's remarks were beautiful and consoling, appropriate alike to the living and the dead.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davis and little son, Corwin, leave today for their future home at Newport News, Va. They carry with them the best wishes of their relatives and many friends here at their old home, where both were born and raised. What is Maysville's loss will be Newport News's gain.

MRS. B. F. JONES.

Mrs. B. F. Jones died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, 107 Union street, of hemorrhage, aged 29 years, 11 months and 25 days.

Here was a peculiarly sad death, having experienced a mother's love for her first born only a few short hours when the slender thread of life snapped and she passed away as one in a peaceful sleep.

Besides a husband and a two days old babe, she leaves one sister and three brothers—Mrs. Minnie Spencer, Springfield, O.; Morton Daulton, Bellevue; Robert Daulton, Covington, and Frank Daulton of Cincinnati.

The funeral arrangements have not been completed and will be announced later.

MRS. CLARENCE BECKETT.

Mrs. Clarence Beckett died at her home in Washington yesterday evening at 6 o'clock after a protracted illness, aged 22 years.

A husband and one child survive her. The funeral takes place tomorrow at 1 o'clock from the Methodist Church.

Interment in Washington Cemetery.

BUGGY WRECK

A Very Natural Result of Racing With a Streetcar

Saturday evening about 7:30 a buggy containing Andy Ring, Adam Ring and Steve Rees met with a mishap at the corner of East Second and Lexington streets.

Andy Ring, the owner of the horse and rig, was driving, and was racing alongside of the streetcar.

At this point the motorman stopped his car for a passenger to alight; the sudden stoppage of the car affrighted the horse, which sheered and becoming unmanageable dashed against a post in front of a telephone pole.

The force of the impact precipitated the occupants to the ground, and one of the number is said to have actually turned a somersault in his aerial flight before reaching terra firma.

The horse, stripped of harness, ran a short distance, and striking a pile of bricks he took a tumble, after which he sat up on his haunches and calmly surveyed the wreck he had created.

Aside from the damage to the buggy Steve Rees received a sprained wrist and the Ring boys scratches and bruises.

They were lucky in escaping as they did. Altogether it was an expensive ride.

The local Daughters of the Confederacy at the St. Charles Hotel last afternoon held impressive memorial services for Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

THEY'RE GOING SOME!

Looks Now Like We'd Have Brick Streets Pretty Soon.

Just before the battle of Five Forks General Sheridan telegraphed to General Grant—"I think the enemy can be captured if things are pushed."

Grant's laconic answer was—"Push things!" Nine days later came Appomattox!

With the snail-like contractors out of the running, the Street Paving Committee made up its mind that both Third street and Second street can be paved within six weeks, and Engineer John H. Sanborn was placed in personal charge of the entire work, with instructions to push things.

Superintendent Hunt went to Cincinnati and got the right sort of hands for the curb and gutter work, and what they are doing in Second street is a plenty.

In Third street the concreters are whooping it up, and in less than two weeks, with anything like fair weather, that thoroughfare will be open to travel.

With Engineer Sanborn in personal charge; with Superintendent Hunt to see that the details are observed, and with the Paving Committee to furnish the sinews of war, there's no reason why the city shouldn't get just as good streets as Henkel & Sullivan, or any other contracting firm, can build—and give us the use of them a few days before Gabriel toots his horn.

If everything pans out as planned, there'll be a regular feather bed in the caps of Messrs. Russell, Lee, Eitel and Doctor Dodson.

We are just in receipt of a shipment of the celebrated John B. Stetson Stiff Hats. The newest fall shapes. D. HECHINGER & CO.

Councilman Thomas M. Russell was kept busy Saturday night handing out the ducats to the boys who were employed on the brick street improvements. The average time was about thirty-one hours, and the payroll amounted to $447. If full time is put in this week it will call for over $1,200.

Messrs. T. B. Satterwhite and E. A. Alexander arrived here yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock on their motor bicycles, having made the run from Lexington in less than four hours. Between Lexington and Paris they speeded their machines at a rate of over twenty miles an hour. After a night's rest at the Central they left this morning for the return trip to Lexington.

Councilman Walter Cleary of Covington was struck and badly bruised by a streetcar.

The Chesley Coal Company bought the Royal Coal Mines near Hopkinsville for $175,000.

While unloading hay at Owingsville Thomas Cook was struck by a pole and his skull crushed.

In the Federal Court at Covington O. B. Coppage, member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, filed suit against the L. and N. for $5,000 damages. He was discharged, and claims that the Company blacklisted him with other roads.

Mrs. Louis January arrived home yesterday on the 1:35 C. and O. train from Chicago, whither she went some four weeks ago for the purpose of undergoing a surgical operation. Having passed through the ordeal she returns practically well.

John Duley, Agent for James C. Thomas, has sold a farm of 103 acres located on the Wolf's Run and Farrar's Mill Turnpike, about 11 miles from Maysville, to T. J. Ensor. Possession to be given March 1st, 1907. This is the farm upon which Mr. Thomas now lives.

The alarm of fire Saturday night between 10 and 11 o'clock was caused by a slight blaze at Henry Gollenstein's blacksmith shop in Wall street. It was put out without the aid of the fire department; two are three buckets full of water extinguished the flames. The damage was very little.

A Negro man about 40 years old was found hanging to a limb of a tree on the lawn of Horace Coleman, nine miles from Lexington, Saturday morning. The indications are that the Negro was lynched, but nobody in the neighborhood has any knowledge of the affair.

At Newport Harry Spinks has won a $41,000 suit against the United States Life Insurance Company of New York. The policy was on the father of Mr. Spinks, and the Company tried to avoid payment on a technicality. The original amount was $25,000; the balance is for interest.

A COMMON COMMENT MADE BY THE TRAVELING PEOPLE WHO VISIT MAYSVILLE: "We see more well dressed men here than in any town double its size in the country." This is made possible by having in this community one of the largest and most up-to-date Men's, Boys' and Children's Outfitting Establishments in the state. A bit of repartee heard any day on our streets: "Hello! That's a swell suit you have on. Where did you get it?" Down at Heck's place is invariably the reply. These few days of pleasant weather will soon pass and cold weather will set in. Why not come in while the lines are complete and make your selections, whether it be a Suit, Overcoat, Cravenette or whatever you need for winter wear that pertains to a gentleman's outfit. Shoes—We only carry three lines—Hanan, Douglas and Walkover, the name stamped on each particular make. You know what they are. We do. They are the best that can be procured or we would not have them.

Knit Underwear.

The man or woman who demands perfect comfort in apparel, is always particular about underwear. YOUR kind is here, depend on it—and maybe something better than you ever bought before at the price. Won't you look the line over?

Children's Underwear—Heavy white 2x2 ribbed vests and drawers, sizes up to 34, all made full in every detail. 15c to 40c each, according to size. Union suits full fashioned and regular made, fleeced and plain, sizes 4 to 16 years, 25c to 50c according to size.

Men's Underwear—Sizes up to and including 46 inches, in shirts and drawers in each quality. Fleeced or plain, white or natural, carefully finished, drawers in short or regular length inseam, unusual values at 50c and 75c a garment. At $1 each, shirts and drawers full fashioned, heavy weight, perfect fitting garments in Maco Cotton or Merino.

Women's Underwear—25c garment. Ribbed, fleeced, nicely finished shirts and drawers. 50c garment. Medium or heavy weight Swiss ribbed, French band drawers, attractively finished vests. Black or White Tights at the same price. Also Union Suits.

Two piece and Union Suits $1 a garment. The former are silk-and-wool, the latter fine Maco cotton, in wrapper or Oneita style.

Blanket Weather.

Troubled with insomnia? Don't place all the blame on the after-dinner coffee or that last cigar. Perhaps your bed coverings are to blame—not warm enough for these frosty nights. Try one of these blankets for real comfort and that genuine economy which means the best of quality-for-price. $6½—Scarlet or white, all wool, soft as down, 74x84 in. 6 pounds. $5½—Soft, elastic wool, tasteful borders, velvet finish, same size and weight as above. $5—A popular price blanket, consequently a Hunt Special—that is, special as to quality-for-price. It's a big value. Weight and size as above. $4—Long staple wool filling on fine cotton warp. Heavy and serviceable. Other blankets at all prices from $3½ down to 59c and all splendid values for the money.

Gloves for Fall.

The autumn styles in our famous Dollar Gloves are ready in generous variety. There are suede, glace, pique and cape gloves brimful of style, comfort and service. And all are $1 A PAIR, which means we offer the best glove values to be found in Maysville at this price.

DIED IN CHICAGO

Mr. Charles H. Stevenson, Very Well Known in Maysville

Charles H. Stevenson, one of Chicago's leading Attorneys, was found dead Friday at the bottom of a freight elevator shaft at No. 95 Washington street.

Foul play is suspected.

The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Robert N. Fryer and Misses Martha and Stella Stevenson, formerly of this city, now of Fort Thomas.

He was also a kinsman of former Vice-President Adlai Stevenson.

Te remains will be taken to Manchester, O., today, the funeral taking place at 2:30 this afternoon.

Rev. W. W. Akers of the Central Presbyterian Church will join the funeral party at this point and go to Manchester to conduct the services.

STRANGE SHOOTING STORY

Husband Dead and Vanceburg Wife in Cincinnati Hospital

At Addyston, just below Cincinnati, Thomas Jordan was shot, dying soon after.

When the neighbors came in they found his sixteen-year-old wife calmly washing her hands from three bullet wounds in her own body.

It was at first thought she had killed her husband, but she protested her innocence, and after being taken to the Betts Street Hospital she told this story to Dr. Broerman, the attending physician—

"I am from Vanceburg, Ky., and my name is Rebecca McCally. My father is J. T. McCally of Vanceburg. I have been married about eight months, and we lived for a time at Vanceburg. I quarreled with my husband there and for a time we lived apart. He came to Coal City to work and I followed. Friday morning I told him I was not going to live with him any longer, and we argued about the matter. I was sitting on the side of the bed, and he said, 'You'd better stay with me, or you'll be sorry.' The next thing I remember is his coming toward me with a gun he had bought several days ago, and which he had threatened then to use on me. I don't remember much after that. I remember vaguely that I was lying on the bed sort of dazed, and a man we call 'Curly' said 'Don't let him get the gun again.' I remember picking up the gun, which was by the bed, and pitching it toward the door. I remember some one saying that my husband was shot, and that he shot himself. I think a Doctor told me that, and I remember I was horribly sick, and everybody wanted to ask questions."

The authorities were for a time firm in the belief that Mrs. Jordan had shot her husband and then herself, but later developments have caused a change of opinion.

At last accounts she was in a critical condition.

Leprosy is increasing in both North and South America. Colombia, where there were only 400 lepers forty years ago, is said to have 46,000 now and many find their way into the United States. Such a medical authority as Dr. Ashmead, who was formerly chief medical adviser to the Government of Japan, says the increase is alarming. When leprosy is brought into a new country it takes fifty years for the seeds to take root, and it becomes epidemic after some 200 years. It has been shown that mosquitoes are active in transferring leprosy bacilli.

Also, 500 barrels of the famous Trow's Perfection Flour. This is by far the best flour sold in Maysville, and it is admitted everywhere that no better can be made. You make a mistake when you buy any other. Sold in 12 and 24 pound sacks and in barrels.

Also, new Head Rice, New Pearl Hominy, New Navy Beans, New Cereals of all kinds, such as Quaker Oats, Scotch Oats, Pawnee Oats, Celery Wheat Food, Saxon Wheat Food, Cream of Wheat, Toasted Corn Flakes, Puffed Rice and everything in that line new and fresh.

Also, NEW PICKLES, sour and sweet, and Sweet Cider. If you have not already done so, don't fail to try my fine Blended Coffees at 15c, 20c and 25c. I buy these Coffees of the importers green and have them roasted, so I can guarantee them to be always fresh. Try one of those fine Battered Mackerel. A big lot coming for the fall and winter trade; and when you want the very best of anything in my line don't fail to come to me.

The latest departure in railroading is being planned by C. H. Speers, General Passenger Agent of the Colorado Midland. The trains will be equipped with orchestras in parlor observation cars. During meal hours the orchestra will move into the dining car.

By a decision of the Supreme Court of Ohio the blind pension law, passed in 1894, is wiped from the statute books. The law provided that "worthy blind" residents should be paid $25 each quarter out of the treasury of the county of which they were legal residents. The Court sustains the contention that the act is a contravention of the State Constitution.

Mark Twain has always been conspicuously lazy—in fact, he rather prides himself on his pronounced indisposition to physical effort. When at school in Hannibal, Mo., he and his classmates were instructed to write a composition on "The Effect of Laziness." Young Clemens at the end of half an hour's deliberation handed in as his contribution a blank slate.

Figures show that there are 1,200,000 more women than there are men in England, destined to be old maids unless some provision is made to send them to Canada or Australia. The general agents in London for Australia and New Zealand have given much encouragement to immigration, and it is expected that the Government will provide for women subsidies such as are exteigned male immigrants.

Ten burned to death and two seriously hurt in a boarding-house fire at Birmingham, Ala.

In Norristown, Pa., fifteen minutes after marrying Amanda McLain, Walter Johnston took a drink of whisky. Mandy deserted at once and will sue for a divorce.

For compelling ten soldiers to scrub a barrack room with their tooth brushes a subaltern in the German Army has been sentenced by court martial to one year's imprisonment and degradation.

William H. Ellis, a Boston contractor, was indicted in the United States Court in Massachusetts for violating the eight-hour law on Federal work at the Charleston Navy Yard. It was a test case, and a Jury returned a verdict of guilty. The penalty is imprisonment for six months or a fine of $1,000, or both.

The Chinese Legation at Washington will be in mourning for 100 days because of the death in China of Mrs. Liang, the mother of Sir Chen Tung Liang Cheng, the Minister to the United States. Chinese customs require that the period during which a son shall mourn his mother is three years. Under ordinary circumstances Chinese who are in the diplomatic service are compelled to give up their positions when a parent dies and go into mourning for the prescribed time, but in this case an imperial decree was issued waiving the full period of mourning.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tun-

nelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

PRETTYLY DRESSED

The Public Library Is Now Robed in Glad Rags

Since the fire and its rehabilitation the Public Library in Sutton street is a thing of beauty and a joy, we hope, forever. The Davis Bros. are the artists who did the transformation act. The color scheme of the room has a decidedly pleasing effect, and together with the neat and clean arrangements of things in general it is now one of the handsomest and most inviting resorts in the city.

It may not be as large as some other Libraries in the state, but it is doubtful if it is surpassed by any other in the way of intrinsic worth as a bureau of information and as an asylum of pre historic relics.

As now controlled and managed it is deserving of the highest encomiums, and all good citizens should never tire in singing its praise.

The average young woman of today is busy. Beauty is only another name for health, and it comes to 99 out of every 100 who take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Waiting doesn't pay. If you neglect the aching back, Urinary troubles, diabetes, surely follow. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve backache, Cure every kidney ill. Maysville citizens endorse them.

Mrs. Lizzie Bridges, wife of Elmer Bridges, of 206 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"In March, 1900, I gave a testimonial praising and recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and in it I told how I learned the great value of this remedy. I had been troubled with a bad back and weak kidneys from girlhood, and in my efforts to find a cure I tried every medicine I could find, but without benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills procured at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore. They proved just the remedy I needed, went right to the cause of the trouble and as a result brought relief that led me to testify in their favor. I have never been without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house since. Every Spring I take a box whether symptoms of kidney trouble are apparent or not, and in this way keep the kidneys in good condition and guard against attacks of my old trouble."
